

Frank Merriwells Backers

Frank Merriwell the clean-cut, vigorous hero of dozens of dime novels by Burt L. Standish excels in sports, solves mysteries, rights wrongs, and dares to do right no matter what the consequences. Frank Merriwells Backers originally published as a serial in Tip Top Weekly magazine in 1903 is a Western in which Frank's enemies try to take from him some valuable mines he owns. About the author: Burt L. Standish, penname of Gilbert Patten (1866-1945), was an author most famous for his Frank Merriwell novels. Other works include Lefty Locke, Pitcher-Manager, Owen Clancy's Happy Trail, and The Call of the Varsity.
