

Nostradamus and the Millennium

This is the first fully illustrated colour edition of the predictions of the 16th century French prophet Nostradamus. He predicted that towards the end of the 20th century humanity would have a choice - to succumb to a holocaust created by a third antichrist or attain a new level of consciousness through religion. A large portion of the book is devoted to the time in which Nostradamus himself took the greatest interest - our time and our future. For the end of the millennium he predicted terrorism, disease, natural disaster and world war, but he was also concerned to tell us how these things could be avoided.
