

How to write an Amazon book that SELLS: by someone who HAS... MANY TIMES !

This is the definitive book about writing an Amazon fiction book (whether for the Kindle, CreateSpace or both) that SELLS, by a published author who has written many such books - as well as being published by major US and British publishers. Packed with useful information and illustrative examples - mostly drawn from successful books by famous authors - this book covers everything from:-

- Getting ideas for stories
- Developing raw ideas into a full-blown storyline
- Doing research (when its necessary) and avoiding it when it isnt
- Writing exciting action sequences that hold the reader in your grip
- Making your dialogue crackle
- Creating realistic and interesting characters
- Describing things in a way that is both evocative to the minds eye and pleasing to read
- Choosing the right voice and point of view
- Pacing your story
- Grabbing the readers attention from the get-go without going over the top
- Ending the book in a way that leaves the read both satisfied and wanting to read your next book
- Maintaining self-discipline throughout the writing process
- Publishing your book for the Kindle, CreateSpace and other platforms
- Steering clear of the pitfalls of self-publishing and the scourge of vanity publishing
- Promoting your book.

This is no lightweight, quick-fix, paint-by-the-numbers How to guide. This is a full-length, detailed book that will really set your creative juices flowing and give you the techniques to develop your raw ideas into a finished, saleable book. Armed with the knowledge in this book, you will be able to write a novel that flows like a river and connects like a quick-fisted prizefighter. And remember: connecting with the reader is what it is all about. This book uses real-world examples - drawn from bestselling books by some of the worlds most successful authors - to show you how to write a book that holds your readers attention and captivate their interest from the opening line to the closing sentence. You will learn how to develop your story, to set about telling it, the dos and dont of publishing it and how to sell the finished item once you have launched it into the market - including somr things that might be worth doing before that! The author of this book is a seasoned, veteran thriller writer and journalist who has had four thrillers published by Hodder Headline, three by HarperCollins and a non-fiction book about an infamous London murder case in which an innocent man had life destroyed by overzealous cops who were in the thrall of a convincing but misguided criminal profiler. The book - which was a flop at the time, because the accused man was such a pariah with the media - was later vindicated when new DNA technology enabled another police team to nail the REAL killer, who had gone on to kill again, while the innocent man had been in jail awaiting trial! If you are looking to make serious money from writing books for the Kindle and CreateSpace, then youve come to the right place. This is the book for you.
