After his formal studies at the Academy, Larsson traveled to Paris and spent many hard working years as an artist without much success. In 1882 when in Grez, he met his future wife Karin Bergoo at a Scandinavian artist colony outside Paris. In 1883, he married Karin who greatly influenced his future work as a watercolor painter. Carl and Karin had eight children who would become his favorite models. In 1888, Carl and Karin received a small house (Lilla Hyttnas) from Karins father. Their house became a mutual art project that to this day is one of the worlds most well known artist homes.NOTABLE WORKS:Apple Orchard, Breakfast Under the Big Birch, By the Cellar, Christmas Eve, Open Air Breakfast.
