

Taking Stock: The Centenary History of the Royal Welsh Agricultural Society

Chronicling the growth and survival of the Royal Welsh Agricultural Society, this work celebrates the success of the Society, which has become one of the four major agricultural societies in the United Kingdom. Enlivened with illuminating anecdotes and personal histories, this book pays particular attention to the reversal of the Societys fortunes at the time of its move to a permanent site at Llanelwedd in 1963. Published to coincide with the Societys centennial year, this work explores the organizations initial years in Aberystwyth and the 37 canvas-towns erected in different towns in north and south Wales.
