

The Hallowed Hunt (The Chalion Series Book 3)

Lord Ingrý kin Wolfcliff is commanded to deliver Lady Ijada (accused of killing a prince who planned to rape and sacrifice her) to the royal court, there to be tried and executed. Magic is everywhere in this land of the Five Gods. Ingrý and Lady Ijada's mutual attraction grows, while both are also undergoing strange sensations because they have been invaded by dangerous animal spirits. Publishers Weekly gave it a starred review and called this third installment in the Chalion series absorbing and brilliant. Bujold's reworking of a classic romantic situation is distinguished by its setting in a well-crafted world and masterly creation of characters whose fates will keep readers turning the pages. - Booklist Bujold continues to prove what marvelous genius can create out of basic space operatics. - Library Journal Bujold is not just a master of plot, she is a master of emotion. - SF Site Bujold is one of the best writers of SF adventure to come along in years. - Locus Magazine A superb craftsman and stylist, Ms. Bujold is well on her way to becoming one of the great voices of speculative fiction. - Rave Reviews Bujold has a gift, nearly unique in science fiction, for the comedy of manners. - Chicago Sun Times Lois McMaster Bujold was born in 1949, the daughter of an engineering professor at Ohio State University, from whom she picked up her early interest in science fiction. She now lives in Minneapolis, and has two grown children. She began writing with the aim of professional publication in 1982. She wrote three novels in three years; in October of 1985, all three sold to Baen Books, launching her career. Bujold went on to write many other books for Baen, mostly featuring her popular character Miles Naismith Vorkosigan, his family, friends, and enemies. Her books have been translated into twenty-one languages. Her fantasy from Eos includes the award-winning Chalion series and the Sharing Knife series.
