

Writers Block: And Other Lies About Writing

If you find yourself stalled and not writing it is not because you are blocked but because you don't have all the information you need. I'm not just talking about plot outlines and character bios, that's the easy part and the smallest part of it all. I'm talking about answering the questions no one seems to ask themselves before embarking on a writing journey. A successful writing journey is mostly a simple matter of knowing what questions to ask.
