

Handbook for the Governing Class: Appointed Officials in Americas Governments

On the even of a transition to a new national administration, it is appropriate to issue this handbook for appointed leaders in Americas governments. Leadership in Americas governments is dependent on the decency, commitment, and skill of the hundreds of thousands of people who serve in these roles. The purpose of this book, an ambitious one, is to inspire and guide the best and brightest of politically interested citizens to join this governing class and to succeed in appointive public service.
