

Salons 1763 (French Edition)

A MON AMI MONSIEUR GRIMM.
Benie soit a jamais la memoire de celui qui, en instituant cette exposition publique de tableaux, excita lemulation entre les artistes, prepara a tous les ordres de la societe, et surtout aux hommes de gout, un exercice utile et une recreation douce, recula parmi nous la decadence de la peinture, et de plus de cent ans peut-etre, et rendit la nation plus instruite et plus difficile en ce genre! Cest le genie dun seul qui perfectionne les artistes. Pourquoi les anciens eurent-ils de si grands peintres et de si grands sculpteurs? Cest que les recompenses et les honneurs eveillerent les talents, et que le peuple, accoutume a regarder la nature et a comparer les productions des arts, fut un juge redoutable. Pourquoi de si grands musiciens?
