

How To Have Your Best Christmas Ever

This book tells the story of how I just had my Best Christmas Ever. Given that I've had 54 of them, I did something different this year that made it stand out--and stand out it did. I discovered that the secret is not in what you get, but what you give. I discovered 10 keys that can help make your next Christmas your best one ever. You can do it while going through a divorce, without having all of your children with you, while living 2300 miles away from your extended family, and even while losing some of your specially-created gifts.

You can learn how to keep Jesus in the forefront of the Christmas season and how to not get caught up in all of the last-minute stress of shopping. I hope this book will bring as much joy into your life as it brought into mine by actually creating it and doing it all. In a world that has so many people avoiding or backing away from Christmas for whatever reasons, this book can turn all of that around. An excellent book for people who are discouraged, lonely, depressed, afraid, or not excited about the Christmas season. Its also for anyone who is going to have another good Christmas but who would really like to make it much better. If you are interested in having your Best Christmas Ever, read this book and follow its ten keys to making it all happen. And enjoy the story! Its true, and it all happened. If I can have my best Christmas ever, you can too!
