

Liar, Liar, Pants on Fire!

When Mrs. Byrd tells Gilberts class that theyre going to be doing plays about famous people, Gilberts heart sinks. Plays make him nervous what if he forgets his lines? So when he lands the role of George Washington in a play about the cherry tree, hes determined to do it without any mistakes. But when his most important prop goes missing right before the show, Gilbert loses his cool and looks to blame anyone but himself. The seventh story about this most beloved opossum is a wise and funny tale of truth and lies and butterflies! thats a perfect tie-in for Presidents Day, Independence Day, and school units on biography.
