What else would you wish for? Daddy says. If you could have anything in the world, what would you wish for? I shrug. Oh, I dont know. Maybe . . . Maybe what? For us to live better than we do. He does not say anything. In 1948, award-winning author Ruth White lived in Jewell Valley, a coal camp nestled between the hills of southwestern Virginia, with her mother, still mourning for a baby who died four years earlier; her father, who spent the weekends and most of his pay out drinking; and her three older sisters, Audrey, Yvonne, and Eleanor. Told in Audreys voice, this is how the author imagines Audreys experiences during a time of great trauma for the White family and what happened before they were able to live a better life. This snapshot of life in a coal camp, complete with everyday heartaches and joys as well as stories, songs, and jokes is Ruth Whites most personal work to date. Little Audrey is a 2009 Bank Street - Best Childrens Book of the Year.
