

In Plain View (Amish Christian Cozy Mystery) (Amish Safe House Bk 2)

From #1 Best-selling author, Ruth Hartzler.

In Plain View is Book TWO in the Amish Safe House Series (Amish Christian Cozy Mystery). U.S. Marshall, Kate Briggs, is still living undercover as an Amish woman, and is beginning to adjust to, and even enjoy, the Amish ways. Yet when a victim, a hitman for organized crime, is found in an Amish neighbors pond, how will Kate solve the murder without arousing the suspicions of the handsome Detective Ryan Weaver, and blowing her cover? When Kate is captured by a notorious crime boss, will this be the end of her secret? In this 3 Amish Romance Suspense book series: 1) Off the Grid 2) In Plain View 3) Safe Hearts Coming soon! About the Author. Ruth Hartzlers father was from generations of what people refer to as Closed Open or Gospel Hall Brethren. Ruths mother, a Southern Baptist, had years of struggle adapting to the cultural differences, and always cut her hair, which was a continual concern to Ruths fathers family. Ruth was raised strictly Brethren and from birth attended three meetings every Sunday at the Gospel Hall, the Wednesday night meeting, and the yearly Conference, until she left the Brethren at the age of twenty one. Ruth still has close friends in the Brethren, as well as the Amish, both groups descending from Anabaptists. Ruths family had electricity, but not television, radio, or magazines, and they had plain cars. Make up, bright or fashionable clothes, and hair cutting were not permitted for women. Women had to wear hats in meetings (what others would call church meetings) but not elsewhere. The word church was never used and there were no bishops or ministers. All baptized men were able to speak (preach, or give out a hymn) spontaneously at meetings. Musical instruments were forbidden, with the exception of the traditional pump organ which was allowed only if played in the home for hymn music. Even so, singing of hymns in accompaniment was forbidden. Ruth Hartzler is a widow with one adult child and two grandchildren. She lives alone with her Yorkshire Terrier and two cats. She is a retired middle school teacher and enjoys quilting, reading, and writing.
