

A Miscellany, Containing Several Tracts on Various Subjects (Classic Reprint)

Farther THOUGHTS ON TAR-WATER. AS the many Experiments that are daily made of the Virtues of Tar-W ater, furnifh new Difcoveries and Reflexions, fome of thefe I have thrown together, and of Fer to the Public in Hopes they may prove ufeul. It is a frequent Complaint, that Tar-W ater hmade of bad Tar, being of a reddifh Colour, fweetjfh, or difagreeably infipid. But though the Dregs of Tar are often foul, and make foul Tar-W ater, and though Tar already ufed is often made ufe of by unfair Dealers a fecond, if not a third Time, which produceth a vile Potion, void of the genuine Flavour and Virtue of Tar-W ater. Yet I apprehend thefe Defecfts may fometimes be afcribed, rather to the Veffel wherein the Tar-W ater is made, than to the Tar itfelf. Tar-W ater being made in an earthen Vef Tel unglazed, or that hath loft Part of its Glazing, may extrafl (as it is a ftrong Menftruum) from the Clay, a fade Sweetifhnefs, oifenfive to the Palate.(Typographical errors above are due to OCR software and dont occur in the book.)About the Publisher Forgotten Books is a publisher of historical writings, such as: Philosophy, Classics, Science, Religion, History, Folklore and Mythology.Forgotten Books Classic Reprint Series utilizes the latest technology to regenerate facsimiles of historically important writings.
