

Murder under Blue Skies

A beloved fixture on NBC TV's Today show since 1980, Willard Scott is welcomed into millions of homes every week as he broadcasts from around the country. Now, with this wonderfully charming new series of cozy mysteries, Scott's fans will share a new set of adventures. Featuring retired weatherman Stanley Waters, Murder Under Blue Skies provides one surprise after another for Stanley, who thinks that opening his own bed-and-breakfast in Virginia, called Blue Skies, is the perfect change after two decades on the nation's top morning show. But when a guest drops dead at Blue Skies grand opening, Stanley and his three adorable cats find themselves smack dab in the middle of a murder investigation. Suddenly real life is much more exciting than television - and certainly more dangerous. *Willard Scott appears twice a week on NBC-TV's Today and co-hosts the Macys Thanksgiving Day Parade and the Christmas tree lighting ceremony in Washington, D.C. *This mystery includes all the elements of cozy suspense: a delightful bed-and-breakfast setting, humor, and charming, well-drawn characters. *Book includes fascinating weather lore every five chapters. *Another book in this series is already signed up.
