

The Murder at the Vicarage (Miss Marple Mysteries)(Audio Theater Dramatization)

[A BBC Radio 4 Full-Cast Dramatization of Agatha Christies very first Miss Marple mystery stars June Whitfield as the indomitable sharp-witted amateur spinster sleuth, with Imelda Staunton and Nigel Davenport.]In the sleepy little English country village of St. Mary Mead, all is not as it seems. Under a seemingly peaceful exterior lurks intrigue, guilt, deception - - and murder. Colonel Protheroe, local magistrate and landowner, is the most detested man in the village. Arrogant, unpleasant, and overbearing, everyone from his own wife to the local vicar wishes he were dead. And very soon he is - - shot in the head in the vicars own study. A visiting artist confesses to the murder, but residents saw him elsewhere at the time the Colonel was shot. If he didnt do it, who did? Is he protecting the Colonels wife whom he loves? Faced with a surfeit of suspects, only the inscrutable Miss Marple can unravel the tangled web of clues. A trap set, and Miss Marples theory is put to the test when the true killer is finally unmasked.
