

Out West with Westy Martin: Four Complete Adventure Books for Boys in One Big Volume

Percy Keese Fitzhugh (1876-1950) is an American author of nearly 100 books for children and young adults. Four Complete Adventure Books for Boys in one big Volume OUT WEST WITH WESTY MARTIN By PERCY KEESE FITZHUGH Thrilling tales of the west, adventure at its most daring and dramatic-and through them all there moves that splendid and beloved boy character, Westy Martin. WESTY MARTIN Westy does a good turn-and wins a trip to the Yellowstone, but even before he gets to the Great West he is called upon to use all of his scout skill. Left stranded in the Rockies, he and his companions are forced to make their way through the wild country with nothing but their scout lore to help them. WESTY MARTIN IN THE YELLOWSTONE Lost in Yellowstone Park! Westy and his chums get off the beaten track of the tourists and have many startling adventures in the biggest stalking expedition that scouts ever enjoyed! WESTY MARTIN IN THE ROCKIES In the heart of the Rockies Westy and his companion, the boy who saved his life at Temple Camp, live with an old trapper and have such adventures as Westy had never thought possible except in the pages of fiction. WESTY MARTIN ON THE SANTA FE TRAIL Westy hits the old Sante Fe Trail in a blaze of glory. An heroic rescue in a lake that is reputed to be bewitched and an almost unequal struggle with the terrific forces of nature in a haunted forest, combine to make this story a series of thrills.
