

A General History and Collection of Voyages and Travels Volume 13

The island is surrounded by a reef of coral rock which forms several excellent bays and harbours some of which have been particularly described where there is room and depth of water for any number of the largest ships. Port Royal bay called by the natives Matavai which is not inferior to any in Otaheite may easily be known by a very high mountain in the middle of the island which bears due south from Point Venus.
