

Scotland An Unwon Cause

This is a collection fundamental texts that define Scotlands political and social past and structure. It provides the notes and discussion necessary to fully appreciate them. Texts include: The Declaration of Arbroath, Ane Satyre of the Thrie Estaites, The Complaynte of Scotland, United and Separate Parliaments, The Treaty of Union, The Declaration of Perth and The Claim of Right. Throughout the centuries, the Scots have found conflict with a much larger and much more powerful neighbour and have always been conscious of their own identity. From The Declaration of Arbroath to the Claim of Rights, a volume of major texts, both literary and political, show the development of Scotlands sense of itself through the years. Writers include David Human, Walter Scott, John Buchan, Edwin Muir, George Davie, Jim Sillars, Fletcher of Saltoun, Sir John Clerk of Penicuik, Robert Burns, James Boswell, Robert Louis Stevenson, Keir Hardie and Adam Smith. Paul Scott is the author of In Bed with an Elephant, Defoe in Scotland and Fletcher of Saltoun.
