

Sextet

The best of Millers chapbooks bound into a single roaring volume. Resembling a musical sextet where no two instruments are the same, but all instruments blend to form a single sound, Henry Millers Sextet combines six jive-talkin, fresh, and impromptu pieces of writing originally published as individual chapbooks by Capra Press: On Turning Eighty, Reflections on the Death of Mishima, First Impressions of Greece, The Waters Reglitterized: The Subject of Water Colors in Some of its More Liquid Phases, Reflections on The Maurizius Case: A Humble Appraisal of a Great Book, and Mother, China and the World Beyond: A Dream in Which I Die and Find Myself in Devachan (Limbo) Where I Run into My Mother whom I Hated All My Life. Like your favorite band releasing a six-song EP to keep you salivating until its next full-length album, Sextet is a finger-snapping sample of Millers work with the blare of a clarion call, and lots of raucous humor and jazz.
