

The Last Techniques I Learned Before Selling Fiction

Writing Techniques That Work!

When Victoria M. Johnson's first novel finally sold to a New York publisher, she took some time to evaluate what made that story different than what she had written and submitted before. Were there specific techniques she had used for the first time? Could those techniques be taught to others?

She discovered that yes; she had applied elements that propelled the story to a new level. With The Last Techniques I learned Before Selling Fiction, readers can use these same techniques to enhance their stories and boost their chances of making a sale.
