

The Other Man: Three Classic Mysteries

TRILOGY - Three mysteries by Edgar Wallace are in this Kindle eBook: The Other Man & The Melody of Death & The Crimson Circle

The Other Man (1910) T. B. Smith, Assistant Commissioner from Scotland Yard is sent to unravel a puzzle: why would Gregory Silinski steal a wallet? Who are the Nine Bears? And where is LOLO the secret rendezvous of the Nine?

Excerpt: It was a bad night in London, not wild or turbulent, but swathed to the eyes like an Eastern woman in a soft grey garment of fog. It engulfed the walled canyons of the city through which the traffic had roared all day, plugged up the maze of dark side streets, and blotted out the open squares. Close to the ground it was thick, viscous, impenetrable, so that one could not see a yard ahead, and walked ghost like, adventuring into a strange world.

The Melody of Death (1915) A man starts behaving strangely when he hears a certain melody in this beautifully written and more subdued of Wallaces thrillers.

The Crimson Circle (1922) Scotland Yard tackles a league of blackmailers known as The Crimson Circle. They may have already killed James Beardmore, who refused to pay after getting a letter demanding ?100,000. Are there more murders to come?
