There are bonds of all sorts in this world of ours Fetters of Friendship and Ties of Flowers, And true lovers knots I ween ;T he Girl and the Boy are bound by a kiss, But, theres never a bond, old friend, like this We have drank from the same Canteen. Pinsx RK-XJK ioisr OF THE 59iih B giment Infantry MeW Yoif I f Bte Paq ifol. IT has well been said that the glorious days are waxing dim, A and now it is only gray-haired men who remember Gettysburg, and grandchildren sit on the knees that marched to A ntietam. Yes, the days grow dim, but the memories of them are as fresh as though the end came but yesterday. Of all the volunteer organizations that participated in the sanguinary struggle of our nation to crush the great Southern Bebellion, there was probably not one more cosmopolitan in its character than the Fiftj -ninth Eegiment of New York I nfantry. It was organized in the City of New York, and the companies were chiefly composed of strangers, who came to our recruiting tents in City Hall Park, and finding there others in a like condition, joined our ranks-without hesitation. Men who have mingled in the world, know by experience that, in large bodies, people from the same neighborhood are apt to be clanish, and that strangers usually prefer strangers as more likely to become congenial companions.(Typographical errors above are due to OCR software and dont occur in the book.)About the Publisher Forgotten Books is a publisher of historical writings, such as: Philosophy, Classics, Science, Religion, History, Folklore and Mythology.Forgotten Books Classic Reprint Series utilizes the latest technology to regenerate facsimiles of historically important writings.
