

The Romance of the Milky Way: And Other Studies and Stories (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from The Romance of the Milky Way: And Other Studies and Stories In outward appearance Hearn, the man, was in no way prepossessing. In the sharply lined picture of him drawn by one of his Japanese comrades in the Atlantic for October, 190 5, he appears, slightly corpulent in later years, short in stature, hardly five feet high, of somewhat stooping gait. A little brown ish in complexion, and of rather hairy skin. A thin, sharp, aquiline nose, large protruding eyes, of which the left was blind and the right very near-sighted.
