

The Twelve Books of Marcus Aurelius Antoninus, the Emperor (Classic Reprint)

M AURELIUS ANTONINUS I FROM my grandfather Verus I learned good morals and the government of my temper. 2 From the reputation and remembrance of my father, modesty and a manly character. 3 From my mother, piety and beneficence, and abstinence, not only from evil deeds, but even from evil thoughts ; and further, simplicity in my way of living, far removed from the habits of the rich. 4 From my great-grandfather, not to have frequented public schools, and to have had good teachers at home, and to know that on such things a man should spend liberally. 5 From my governor, to be neither of the green nor of the blue party at the games in the Circus, nor a partizan either of the Parmularius or the Scutarius at the gladiators fights ; from him too I learned endurance of labour, and to want little, and to work with my own hands, BAbout the Publisher Forgotten Books is a publisher of historical writings, such as: Philosophy, Classics, Science, Religion, History, Folklore and Mythology.Forgotten Books Classic Reprint Series utilizes the latest technology to regenerate facsimiles of historically important writings.
