

A Farewell Sermon

Jonathan Edwards was voted out of his congregation in Northampton, Massachusetts, on June 22, 1750, because of his belief that the Lords Super was not for the unconverted. A Farewell Sermon was preached on July 1, 1750 and addresses of how a pastor cares for his congregation, and how he will meet with them again in heaven at the Judgment when all truth will be known. Jonathan Edwards gives advice and warning to the congregation. He eventually moved to work among the Housatonic Indians at Stockbridge, Massachusetts. Includes a LINKED OUTLINE of contents.
